

Synasc 2005 - FINAL PAPER

Revised versions of papers presented at SYNASC'05 will be published by IEEE Computer Society Press. Two types of papers were accepted at SYNASC'05: full papers (max. 8 pages) and short papers (max. 4 pages). The type of each paper has been decided by the program committee according to the paper content and quality. The authors will be soon informed about the type of their accepted paper.

In order to prepare your final papers please follow the specifications received from IEEE Computer Society Press:
